

Supporting Positive Behaviour In Alberta Schools:
Key Element #8: Collaborative Teamwork/Leadership and the Wrap Around Process

By Dwaine M. Souveny For CARC 2010-2011

Participant Worksheet

What are 6 things that an administrator can do within a leadership role to facilitate the team processes for students who display challenging behaviour?

What are some things that could be done for the following scenario?

- The learning support teacher within the school has a philosophy of building upon strengths and seeing the positives of a student's behaviour. When challenging behaviour occurs she views this as an opportunity for the child to learn more socially appropriate behaviours through the teaching efforts of the educators working with the student
- The principal at the school views negative behaviours in a much more authoritarian manner – emphasizing that clear and consistent reductive consequences must be in place for undesired behaviour

What are two key components for educational leadership?

1) _____ 2) _____

What are 4 things an administrator can do to build a team approach?

1) _____ 2) _____

3) _____ 4) _____

What are three ways that an administrator can do to build team/staff capacity?

1) _____ 2) _____ 3) _____

What are some ways that an administrator can support school based teams?

What is the website to find out more information and review videos for Alberta's Approach to Collaborative Practices? _____

What are the pros and cons of working collaboratively as a team?

Pros

Cons

When working with parents of students with behaviour difficulties, what 3 considerations or techniques are most important to develop positive relationships?

1) _____ 2) _____

3) _____

Who would be on a learning team for a student who displays challenging behaviour?

What are three strategies or suggestions to ensure school-based learning teams are in place for students who require them?

1) _____ 2) _____

3) _____

Sally has been arguing with and threatening other students. She also argues with the Educational Assistant, although she more frequently listens to the teacher. After a particularly challenging day this past week, Sally's mother came in a "tore a strip" off of the teacher for not listening to her child's concerns and "over reacting" in the classroom.

What are the roles of the

Administrator _____ Teacher _____

Educational Assistant _____ FSLW _____

Parent _____ other _____